

Ticket Blurb - Riley Pearce and Garrett Kato Co-Headline Tour

Two of Australia's most compelling singer-songwriters Riley Pearce and Garrett Kato have announced a 2019 co-headline tour which will see the artists join forces for 16 dates across Europe and the UK.

The tour comes after Garrett recorded and produced Riley's new EP late last year. With a shared indie-folk sound and toes already dipped overseas, these shows are set to be a truly intimate affair.

Garrett Kato will be touring off the back of a coveted support slot opening for Damien Rice and his new EP 'Distant Lands', out June 14. Meanwhile, Riley Pearce will return to the stage after a massive national headline tour, backed by his latest EP 'The Landing Songs', out April 26.

The tour kicks off September 12 at Parkteatret in Oslo, Norway and runs through to October 10, with tickets going on sale Monday, May 13.
